The 2026 Toyota Prado All-Rounder G is built for drivers who want power, presence, and versatility in one premium SUV. Equipped with a 2.4L turbo petrol engine delivering an impressive 267 HP and 430 Nm of torque, this Prado confidently handles city roads and rugged terrain alike. Its full-time 4WD system with transfer case, central differential lock, and 8-speed automatic transmission ensure smooth performance in every condition. On the outside, the Prado makes a bold statement with 18-inch alloy wheels, striking LED headlights, DRLs, fog lamps, and a silver front grille. Practical design elements such as roof rails, side steps, mud guards, rear spoiler, and a power back door make it equally stylish and functional for daily use or adventure travel.

Step inside the 2026 Prado All-Rounder G and experience comfort designed for every passenger. This 7-seater SUV features premium synthetic leather seats, a powered driver seat, and ventilated and heated front seats for year-round comfort. The cabin feels refined with a leather steering wheel and shift knob, illuminated scuff plates, and a spacious layout supported by a large 12.3-inch display audio system. Apple CarPlay, USB-C and HDMI ports, and six speakers keep everyone connected and entertained. Dual-zone automatic air conditioning in the front and rear ensures consistent comfort across all three rows. With thoughtful touches like a cool box, tonneau cover, and ample charging ports, the Prado is perfectly suited for families and long journeys.

Toyota has equipped the 2026 Prado All-Rounder G with advanced safety and convenience features that inspire total confidence on every drive. A comprehensive airbag system (including front, knee, side, and curtain airbags) offers maximum occupant protection. Advanced driver assistance features such as ABS, VSC, traction control, hill-start assist, downhill assist, and parking support brake enhance stability and control in all conditions. Crawl Control and multiple drive modes (Eco, Normal, Sport) allow the Prado to adapt seamlessly to different terrains and driving styles. Smart entry, push-button start, front and rear sensors, rear camera, and a moon roof add everyday convenience and luxury. With Toyota's trusted reliability and cutting-edge technology, the Prado is a smart and confident purchase.
